

eFUEL EFN Corp. announces confirmation from the Federal Government that it has completed the additional information requested before receiving its Super 8(a) Certification.

TAMPA, FL--April 15, 2009 -- eFUEL EFN, Corp. (Pink: EFUL), is pleased to announce that our 8(a) consultants on our Super 8(a) Certification submission have informed us that the Federal Government has received the additional information as requested which completes the application process. Additionally, our consultants are highly confident that eFUEL EFN, Corp., subsidiary I-NEX Worldwide will be granted the Super 8(a) Certification very shortly. With this certification, eFUEL will be in line to receive substantial contracts from all governmental departments by virtue of its no bid set-aside program, which is extended only to Super 8(a) companies. In fact, eFUEL will be one of a small number of companies that has a Super 8(a) Certification that provides background checks and alcohol/drug testing kits, as well as, testing protocols.

Government Services Agency (GSA) designates 23% of its Total Budget each year for Small Businesses. Native American-owned or "Super" 8(a) Vendors receive Special Consideration including GSA Service Contracts "without study or cost comparison".

GSA sales numbers in 2007 for schedule 738X (Pre-Employment background checks) were over $177 million; Numbers for GSA Schedule 66 (which includes Drug Testing Services) Exceeded $693 million.

eFUEL EFN, Corp. will soon be making a major media announcement. Reinforcing its commitment to develop a nationally recognizable brand name, as well as, to greatly increase public awareness, eFUEL will be appointing a national Director of Marketing. Additionally, eFUEL has begun to implement this strategy and is in negotiations with a major Media Advertiser to gain national exposure to promote its websites and services.
